

The Nutshell

Hazelwood School

At around 3pm on Monday afternoon, the skies above Hazelwood turned a very eerie colour. In a matter of moments, the buildings were bathed in an ochre wash. It felt like Halloween had come a fortnight early as leaves swirled around, whipped into a frenzy by the strengthening wind. Minds were cast back to the Great Storm of 1987 which saw the school Chapel completely destroyed by a falling tree. Luckily the effect of Hurricane Ophelia was less dramatic. As quickly as the dust carrying clouds descended, they parted and the children were able to finish off their sports training in near normal conditions.

Whilst the freak weather conditions were giving rise to fears of another storm, the U11A girls' hockey team were themselves storming their way through to the IAPS Regional Finals. The team of Holly, Connie, Elsa, Michelle, Clara, Iona, Karlijn and Olivia emerged victorious after a 3-2 victory over Sutton Valence School. They are now Regional Champions and as such get a pass straight through to National Finals being played at Millfield School in November.

Could the National Title be ours.....

Congratulations go to the girls for their focussed, spirited and determined play. Not one of them gave up in any of their six matches played during the day's competition. They were skilled but by the time the final came, nothing was going to get through their line of defence without a fight such was their grit and growing confidence! Well done too to Miss Dancy, the team coach, supported and encouraged by Mrs Falconer and Mr Reay. This victory and achievement brings another regional title to Hazelwood School which is quite an achievement especially when you consider that the school did not even play hockey until recently. The sporting talent at the school is multiplying and ricocheting through the year groups. The necks of so many of our children have now been graced with winners' and runners-up medals. We wish them all the very best for the National Finals. Can we dream of another national title?

And finally, I quaff my hat at the travelling band of Year 8 pilgrims who have taken to the stage already three times this week to entertain and educate with their spirited presentation of the Canterbury Tales. Yet again, they, and Mrs Housego have pulled out all the stops – this time with a few added medieval puns and double entendres – to raise the curtain, and the bar, on a performance oozing with talent and fun. The Wife of Bath recounted the tales of her five marriages with vocal resonance and dexterity, Chaunticleer the resourceful cockerel saw off the advances of Sir Russell Fox with cunning and guile and the interval cliff hanger as to whether Sir Codsbrain would lose his head or not left the expectant audience wanting more. A triumph and tour de force of quite a different and daring genre proving, yet again, that the thespians of Hazelwood are not only versatile but also impressarios of the stage. The sound, lighting and back stage changes were slick and professional with the occasional pyrotechnic ‘thrown-in’ for full medieval effect.

News from The Nursery & Early Years

As we arrive at half term for term time children and the Oak reception classes, I have once again been walking the site and it gives me great pleasure to see the progress that all the children have made in such a short space of time. Two particular highlights this week are at opposite ends of the spectrum. The first occurred on Monday as I walked the site with Mrs Louw. We walked into the Fledglings 2 room and a little boy had managed to put his own shoes on for the first time, a personal achievement that he was clearly proud of. Then on Tuesday afternoon, I was presented with a piece of work from a child in Oak. This particular boy had focused, persevered, and managed to write two full sentences, including finger spaces and a capital letter at the beginning. Clear evidence that the Read Write Inc phonics scheme is having a positive impact on the children's literacy skills.

Take a look below for a full round up of each room this week.

In Fledglings 1 we have been experimenting with natural textures such as sand and leaf play. We then explored the leaves with paint, which was nice and messy! The children also enjoyed colouring in a big red bus for our nursery rhyme board.

Fledglings 2 have entered the world of Elmer the elephant this week. The children have all enjoyed making Elmer masks and helping create a giant Elmer for the wall. We have also had lots of fun categorising items into different colours and sizes.

In Lower Robins the children have been focusing on the story 'We're going on a Bear Hunt'. They have been exploring different textures from the story, been on a small world bear hunt, made bear biscuits and bear masks using paper plates as well creating a large bear using a wide variety materials.

In Upper Robins we have created our own dinosaur foot print fossils using clay, we added details using different tools. The children enjoyed working together to piece together the dinosaur puzzles. We have also been looking at textures of objects and have been exploring how different items feel.

Skylarks have enjoyed practising being independent by putting on their own clothes and even fastening their own buttons. The children have been busy refining their fine motor skills with threading and pasta play. There has been lots of collaboration this week, the children have worked together to make some wonderful structures and a very impressive train track. All of the children enjoyed a whole group game of hide and seek in the garden.

What's on at HNEY next week?

Thursday 26th October - 'How under 2's learn' workshop with Jane O'Keefe

Hoakus Pocus in Reception this week!

The story "Room on the Broom" was the focus in Oak this week. Activities have included writing magic potions, making rhyming spells and role-play. Mrs Taylor's class even turned Miss Rhind into a frog!

They have also been designing and drawing new broomsticks for the witch in 'Room on the Broom.' Charlie designed (see left hand picture) a fantastic broomstick with seats for every character in the book.

Congratulations to Tom T who has produced a "genial" piece on the eco school theme of water, based on his holiday experiences. Très intéressant et bon travail Tom!

L'EAU dans les pays en développement

Le constat

- Beaucoup de personnes n'ont pas accès à de l'eau potable.
- A la campagne, l'eau est disponible dans les puits ou les rivières, mais cette eau est souvent polluée.
- À la ville, le réseau d'eau potable n'est pas très développé. Il n'y a pas vraiment de système d'assainissement.
- Près de 20% des enfants dans le monde ne disposent pas d'eau potable ou se trouvent à plus de 15 minutes à pied d'un point d'eau.
- Consommation globale d'eau par an et par habitant:
  - ✓ Pays riches 150L (Europe) / 600L (Amérique)
  - ✓ Pays pauvres 10L

Les conséquences

- Le manque d'eau et l'eau polluée tuent ou rend les gens malades (1/3 de la population mondiale).
  - ✓ La diarrhée est la deuxième cause de mortalité (1,7 million de personnes meurent tous les ans).
  - 4 400 enfants (1,8 million par an) meurent chaque jour
- Les femmes et les enfants se chargent en général d'aller chercher l'eau— ils doivent marcher des kms et des kms pour trouver de l'eau potable et souvent doivent attendre longtemps
- Il n'y a pas d'eau pour arroser les champs et les cultures, donc les gens meurent de faim.

Les solutions

- Un « livre à boire » - chaque page devient un filtre capable de purifier l'eau.
- Le baril cylindrique qui roule (40L) — plus facile pour les femmes et les enfants de ramener l'eau du puit sans se fatiguer.
- De l'eau produite à partir de crottes humaines (elles sont brûlées puis desséchées, les vapeurs générées sont utilisées pour en faire de l'eau potable).
- La construction de puits dans le désert

" Quand je suis allé au Maroc avec mes grands parents, j'ai vu des puits cachés dans les dunes dans le désert".

Please remember to sign up to take part in the second Give a Wig for Christmas being held at Hazelwood on Sunday 12th November from 9.30am. Children, and adults can volunteer to have (at least) 7 inches cut off their hair or to have their heads shaved in order to support the charity who makes wigs for children who have lost their hair through chemotherapy and who benefit from the much-needed confidence boost that having hair again brings. Contact Mrs Higgins for more details. The hair is being cut by professional hair stylists from Thomas Hills' salon in Oxted so your hair is in safe hands. Mrs Higgins can be contacted at annahiggins0005@gmail.com

If you are not brave enough to take part (or you don't have enough hair), you can still get involved by visiting the link below to sponsor the growing number of children and adults who are going under the scissor to help this very worthwhile cause. The event is open to all: friends and families of Hazelwood and beyond.

Dear Hazelwood School,

Thank you so much for your generous donation of £750. As their tutor I would like to send you an update on the many achievements of the Bloomin' Arts dance group. There have been three performances during 2016-2017. The first one for the year was 'A Bloomin' Good Fashion Event' in the autumn term. Bloomin' Arts collaborated with LCA stage academy to walk the cat walk. The group also performed a routine in the opening ceremony.

The dance group received an invitation to perform in Westerham at St Mary's Church Christmas show in December 2016. They were a great hit with the audience. It was a great opportunity to put Bloomin' Arts on the map.

In April 2017 the dance group collaborated with LCA again to do a sharing show at Oxted School. They performed to a packed out space. The two groups bonded during 'A Bloomin' Good Fashion Event,' so both parties decided we must do this again. The collaborations benefitted both parties and were a shining example of community cohesion. For LCA it was the first time a lot of the children had met or worked with a performer who has learning difficulties. The Bloomin' Arts performers met people who respected them for who they are. The audiences at both shows were moved to see two such different groups come together so naturally. Both groups are excited to work with each other again.

The dance group love the chance to perform. They are very passionate about the pieces they learn and create and want to share them with others. The group have achieved so much over the year as individuals and as a group. Their confidence has grown. Their communication skills have developed. There was one member that used to say "it's a bit difficult for me," but now she tries everything and does it with ease.

Thank you for supporting the dance group to achieve so much.

Mel Coomber (Bloomin' Arts Dance tutor)

Year 7 & 8 lunchtime feedback

As part of our continuing review of Hazelwood's catering, would all Year 7 and 8 pupils follow the link below to complete a confidential survey on your views of lunchtime and afterschool meals. Be honest but please record your views and not necessarily those of others around you. Thank you.

<https://www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/HazelwoodCateringOct17>

Feeding the five hundred

The school is actively working with Holroyd Howe to review its catering and to introduce new measures which will elevate the lunch and tea-time experiences to the levels commensurate with a Prep School of Hazelwood's standing.

Meals will continue to be freshly prepared each day by Dave and his team and will follow an ever-changing menu. However we will be:

- Conducting research groups amongst pupils and parents to find out what each group wants out of the school's catering team
- Reviewing portion sizes and menu choices in partnership with Holroyd Howe nutritionists to ensure that the pupils are receiving healthy balanced diet and enough fuel to see them through the day
- Ensuring that the first and the last pupil fed has access to the same choice and variety
- Raising the bar on the quality of service so that the food takes the journey from oven to plate with pride and maximum taste credentials

This process is underway already and a focus group with Year 7 & 8 parents and pupils is already in the dairy for the first week back after half term. It is the school's intention to follow these sessions up with similar think tanks with groups from lower down the school. Thank you, to date, for all feedback. This is proving most useful in shaping a future approach to catering which will tickle all taste-buds and leave appetites satisfied.

Music Department News

Hazelwood Music always tries to deliver a musical experience of the highest quality for our pupils, parents and friends.

This week Hazelwood plays host to the internationally famous pianist Imogen Cooper who will be performing in the Bawtree Hall on Saturday evening at 7.30 pm as part of the Oxted and Limpsfield Music Society Concert Series. A pianist of world renown this concert is not to be missed - piano pupils take note!

We are also lucky enough to have teaching staff of world renown at Hazelwood: we are delighted that Mike Osborn has been teaching percussion here for several years. Mrs Louw and Mrs Young watched Mike deliver a fabulous samba workshop at Epsom College many years ago and managed, eventually, to lure Mike to teach at Hazelwood - how lucky are we! Here is his biography so that you too can appreciate his wide ranging and fabulous experience in performing and facilitating young musicians.

Mike studied percussion at the Royal Academy of Music with Nicholas Cole and James Blades. Since leaving in 1986 he has worked extensively as a freelance drummer and percussionist in theatre, TV, and the recording industry.

He has played for many of the London Orchestras including the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, Royal Philharmonic Pops Orchestra, National Symphony Orchestra, Jupiter Orchestra of London and the BBC Concert Orchestra as well as working for Sadler's Wells, the RSC and the National Theatre. He has also worked and recorded with many European Orchestras including the Prague Symphony Orchestra and the German NDR Radio Orchestra and Big Band.

Mike has also worked, recorded and toured with many varied artistes including Van Morrison, Petula Clark, Bette Midler, Tom Jones, Joss Stone, Gregory Porter, Natalie Cole, Tony Hadley, Sasha Distel, Mark Knopfler, Tim Minchin, Beverley Knight, Bobby Womack, Freddie Mercury, Irene Cara, Bonnie Langford, Christal Gayle, Dame Kiri Te Kanawa, Michael Ball, Dame Lesley Garrett, Rick Astley, John Barrowman, Bobby Davro, Vanessa Mae, Sinitta, Luke Goss, Toyah Wilcox, Gareth Gates, Posh Spice, Sporty Spice, Edwin Starr, Deniece Williams, Jimmy Ruffin, David Hasselhoff, Jerry Springer, Dame Edna Everage and Pamela Anderson. Mike's Jazz credits include Cleo Laine, Johnny Dankworth, Tina May, Claire Martin, Mica Paris, Kenny Ball, George Melly, Cy Coleman, Janie Dee, Albert Lee and Deana Martin.

Mike's TV work includes the Laurence Olivier Awards, Evening Standard Awards, Parkinson, The Sound of Musicals, The What's On Stage Awards, The Big Breakfast house band, Johnny Vaughan Tonight house band, Lily Savage Live house band, The National Lottery show with Brian Conley, The All Star Talent Show, An Audience with Harry Hill, Tonight Show with Jerry Anderson, Cold Feet, London's Burning, The Rania show house band as well as many Childrens TV shows including Playschool, Blue Peter, Corners, Hilltop Hospital, Dramarama and The All Electric Amusement Arcade.

Feature films which Mike has worked on include Bright Young Things directed by Stephen Fry and Number Ten. In addition, his playing has been heard on many TV and Radio adverts including Tennants Lager, Marmite, Land Rover, M&M's, Cadbury's, Heinz Beans and many others.

Mike has appeared in many West End shows including Blues in the Night (Original Production and cast album), High School Musical (Original Production at Hammersmith Apollo), Fame, Rent, Guys and Dolls (National Tour and West End), 42nd Street (National Tour), Tell me on a Sunday (National Tour), La Cagé aux Folles (European Tour), Showboat (National Tour and West End), Five Guys named Moe (Original West End production), Personals (Original West End production), Annie Get your Gun and She Loves Me. Mike has also been the drummer for the Panto at Wimbledon Theatre for the last 18 years.

Mike has also composed and recorded the graded modern syllabus music for the ISTD Dance examination board over the last few years and has been closely associated with Laine Theatre Arts College for over 30 years. He is a well known and respected tutor and has held teaching posts at Trinity College of Music, Epsom College, Reigate Grammar School, Hazelwood School and Tiffins School as well as being a principal percussion coach with the National Symphony Orchestra, National Concert Band and National Symphony Training Orchestra.

Percussionists take note!!
Have a great Half term

With Halloween fast approaching, you wouldn't want to bump into one of these scary Year 2 monsters. They may be charming children full of smiles and promises by day, but when they step into the Dance Studio, their teeth lengthen and they grow talons long enough to frighten even the most practised of dance teachers!
